Featuring Meg Kinnear

Secretary General of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes

With 153 member states, ICSID is effectively a global investment court system, having administered more than 70% of all known cases. In these contentious times, what is the future of investor-state dispute settlement? What are the key developments in recent cases and what lessons should counsel take away? What is the latest on the ICSID rules amendment process, diversity in arbitration, challenges to arbitrators, and remedies for both investors and states? Join Meg Kinnear in conversation with Richard Kreindler on May 1 to find out.

PLUS: “Does the Use of Witness Statements in International Arbitration Operate as a Fraud on the Tribunal?” Phillip Allen Lacovara & Frances E. Bivens debate.
