1315 – 1430 Session one

A lawyer's beauty contest: which path to choose between commercial and investment arbitration?

Participants in this session will present a mock 'beauty contest' between law firms after the presentation of a potential case by a client. The client will describe a situation in which a dispute with a government agency over its business operations can lend itself to either a commercial arbitration or an investment treaty arbitration. The client will seek advice in particular relating to whether it should consider selecting either commercial arbitration or treaty arbitration, or instituting parallel arbitration proceedings. Two lawyers, from two different firms, will compete for the client's business and in the course of their respective pitches, will propose opposite advice regarding the arbitration path to be chosen and the consequences for the client.

Speakers

Tina Cicchetti Fasken Martineau DuMoulin, Vancouver

Patrick Pearsall Attorney-Advisor, Office of the Legal Advisor, US Department of State, Washington DC; Member, IBA Arb40 Subcommittee

Lisa Tomas Arnold & Porter, London

1430 – 1500 Coffee/tea break

1500 – 1645 Session two

Choosing between commercial and investment arbitration

A panel of experts will address the issues discussed in the beauty contest as a basis for exploring the factors that should be taken into consideration in choosing between commercial and/or treaty arbitration.

- Interim and provisional measures
- Jurisdictional issues
- Parallel arbitration proceedings
- Arbitrators challenges
- Recourses against the award and enforcement
- Transparency and Amicus Curiae

No Deductions or Withholdings

All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this 'Information' section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this 'Information' section you shall pay such sum as well, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Conference sell-outs

The IBA places its conference in venues of a suitable size for the event; however there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a 'first come, first served' basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to the conference without a confirmed place at the event.

Cancellation of registration

If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by 2 May, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations received after 2 May will not be eligible for any refund of registration fees.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA conference in accordance with the terms of the 'cancellation of registration' clause included in the 'Information' section of the relevant conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such conference all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant conference.

By completing the 'Accommodation form', you enter into an agreement with the hotel regarding credit card guarantees, cancellation/no-show terms and conditions and room rates. Neither the IBA nor JLC can accept responsibility for hotel accommodation disputes between a delegate and the hotel.

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 50,000 individual legal professionals and 205 bar associations and law societies spanning all continents and has considerable expertise in providing assistance to the global legal community.

Grouped into two divisions – the Legal Practice Division and the Public and Professional Interest Division – the IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information. Through the various committees of the divisions, the IBA enables an interchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe. Additionally, the IBA's world-class conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners, senior business professionals, regulators and government officials.

The IBA Arbitration Committee overview

The Arbitration Committee focuses on laws, practice and procedures relating to the arbitration of transnational disputes. Through its publications and conferences, the committee seeks to share information about international arbitration and promote its use and improve its effectiveness. The committee has four subcommittees: Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards, Investment Treaty Arbitration, Conflicts of Interest, and Rules of Evidence. The committee also has established two task forces: the Task Force on Attorney Ethics in Arbitration; and the Task Force on Arbitration Agreements.

The committee publishes a newsletter which is issued twice a year. The newsletter is packed with articles from practitioners worldwide. The committee's other publications include the IBA Guidelines on Conflicts of Interest in International Arbitration and the IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence in International Commercial Arbitration. Committee members also receive the IBA's Dispute Resolution International journal which is issued twice a year.

The committee has more than 2,300 members from over 90 countries.

The IBA North American Regional Forum overview

The North American Regional Forum covers Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, the United States, and English-speaking areas of the Caribbean. Launched at the Chicago Annual Conference in 2006, the forum is the focus for all activities in the region, and organises sessions and a luncheon event at each IBA Annual Conference for education and networking. Future plans include organising conferences in partnership with other IBA committees and fora, as well as other bar associations and legal organisations in the region.

The Forum is closely affiliated with the Latin American Regional Forum as the regions are geographically proximate and share many issues.

The aims of the North American Forum are to:

- spread knowledge about legal practice within North America; and
- expand the international perspective of lawyers practicing in North America.
