

NYIAC Fall for Ethics Breakfast Panel

September 22, 2015 | 8:30am - 10:15am

Location: 150 E. 42nd St., 17 Fl.
New York, NY 10017

NYIAC takes a look at how the IBA Guidelines on Party Representation in International Arbitration have fared in their first two years. How widely are the Guidelines being used? Are they effective at regulating counsel conduct in arbitration? This program will examine select aspects and controversies, including:

- Conflicts of Interest
- Submissions to the Tribunal
- Counsel-Witness Interaction
- Available Remedies
- A Look Back at Criticism

Receive 2 NY
Ethics CLE Credits

Join the discussion with an expert panel of speakers:

Julie Bédard, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP

Paul Friedland, White & Case LLP

Samaa Haridi, Hogan Lovells LLP

Elliot Polebaum, Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP

Catherine Rogers, Professor of Law, Pennsylvania State University

Moderated by Joseph LoBue, Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP

REGISTRATION

Click Here to register, or visit www.nyi.ac.org.

The registration fee for NYIAC Individual Members is $75.

Non-member registration is $95.