

November 20, 2019
 8:30 a.m. - 10:45 a.m.
 NYIAC
 150 East 42nd Street
 New York, NY 10017

New York Arbitration Week Diversity
Challenge: Reinventing the Landscape for Young IA Practitioners

Join the New York International Arbitration Center (NYIAC) and various young arbitration groups — including American Arbitration Association-International Centre for Dispute Resolution’s Young & International (AAA-ICDR’s Y&I), Young Arbitral Women Professionals (YAWP), the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution’s Young ADR (CPR’s Y-ADR), Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Young Members Group (CIArb YMG), the International Chamber of Commerce Court of Arbitration’s Young Arbitrators Forum (ICC’s YAF), the Silicon Valley Arbitration and Mediation Center’s Young Professionals (SVAMC YP) and Young International Arbitration Practitioners of New York (YIAP-NY) with the ADR Inclusion Network — for a panel discussion with break-out sessions on the state of diversity in international arbitration. Delegates will help to define diversity in a changing world and strategize tips and tools to move the needle measurably forward.

Speakers Include:

- Sheila M. Sproule and Niki Borofsky: ADR Inclusion Network
- Viren Mascarenhas and Gretta Walters: ICDR Y&I
- Amanda Lee and Cherine Foty: YAWP
- Natalie L. Reid: CPR Y-ADR
- Rainbow Willard: CIArb YMG
- Rajat Rana: ICC YAF
- Rekha Rangachari: NYIAC
- Adelmise Rosemé Warner: SVAMC YP
- Daniela Paez: YIAP-NY

Register here. Please register separately for preceding New York Arbitration Week Welcome Breakfast.

